12. RISK STATEMENT

12.1 Rule 4 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: “The responsibility for a yacht’s decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone.”

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

- (1.a) They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;
- (1.b) They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;
- (1.c) They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;
- (1.d) Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;
- (1.e) The provision of a race management team, committee boats, and other officials and volunteers by the event organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;
- (1.f) The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;
- (1.g) It is their responsibility to familiarise themselves with any risks specific to this venue or this event drawn to their attention in any rules and information produced for the venue or event and to attend any safety briefing held for the event;
- (1.h) They are responsible for ensuring that their boat is equipped and seaworthy so as to be able to face extremes of weather; that there is a crew sufficient in number, experience and fitness to withstand such weather; and that the safety equipment is properly maintained, stowed and in date and is familiar to the crew.
- (1.i) It is the responsibility of each competitor to ensure that he/she complies with all HM Government guidance in respect of Covid-19 precautions as shall be in effect at race time.

13. PRIVACY

The Cowes Corinthian Yacht Club in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR) will use information provided by competitors for the purposes of CCYC and [Contessa 32] event management only. This data will be held in compliance with the GDPR and will not be shared with any third parties or used for marketing purposes other than contacting competitors by email, post, SMS and telephone with information regarding this event.

14. MEDIA

Competitors automatically grant to the Organising Authority, without payment, the right in perpetuity to make, use and show any motion pictures, still pictures and live, taped or filmed television of or relating to the event, provided that they do not infringe the privacy rights of participants.

15. INSURANCE

15.1 All Competitors shall be adequately and suitably insured before racing with a minimum third-party liability cover of £3 million.
