

Wednesday Evening Winter Talks at CCYC

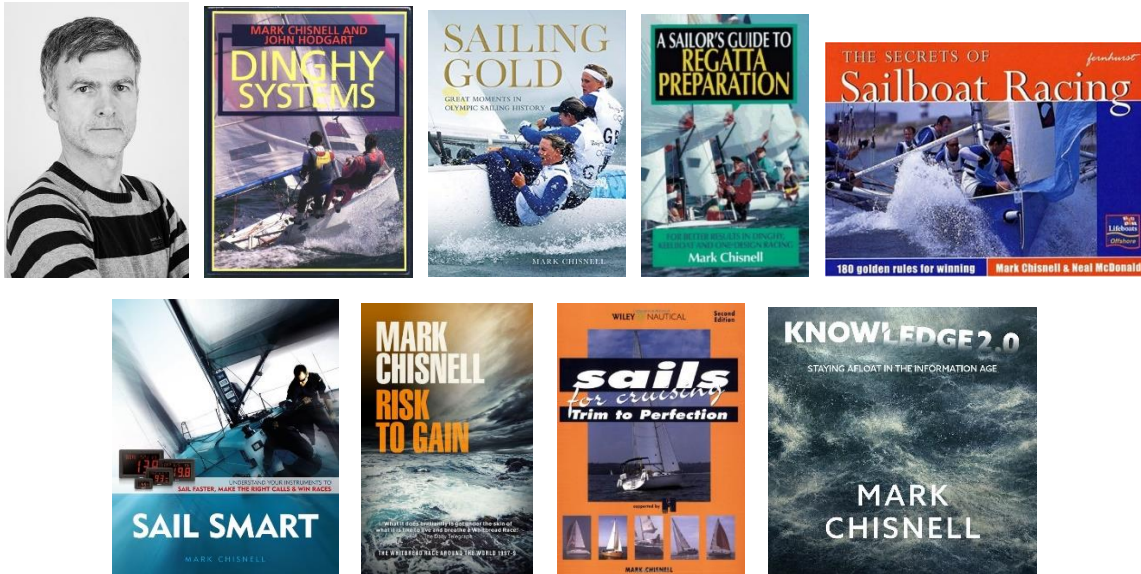

Join us for 'An Evening with' professional sailor, celebrated author and race commentator

Mark Chisnell

29 January 2025 @7pm at CCYC

Mark Chisnell is a charismatic, highly skilled and talented individual who brilliantly entertains through creating graphic images and by painting detailed pictures with his words and stories....and he's got much to talk to us about!

Mark has spent over thirty years working across diverse areas and topics. He's written five novels and eleven non-fiction books. Mark has also developed technical solutions to complex problems in marine electronics. Here's a few of his titles....

Mark has won three sailing world championships, sailed and worked with seven teams in yacht racing's America's Cup, and currently works as Rules Adviser to a British Cup team, a partnership between four-time Olympic gold medallist Ben Ainslie's sailing team, and the Mercedes F1 team.

Mark started working on the live, in-port race commentary for the Volvo Ocean Race 2008-09. Then in 2010 and 2011 he worked on Red Handed TV's coverage of the World Match Racing Tour, doing live commentary, and scripting and producing highlights shows.

Free Entry - All Welcome. Clubhouse bar and club opens at 5pm